Gentlemen:

We are returning you herewith the facsimile of the Institute's Insignia and medal of Honor together with a sample piece of the Institute's ribbon which you requested our President to have transformed into a insignia of the Society- the Executive Committee is unable to see their way to allowing any private individual to posess an insignia of the Society as they are all owned and paid for by the Society and are only for the use of high officers thereof, upon public occasions.

Upon the death of any member of the Society having such a Insignia in his posession, the Executive Officers will request its return.

We assume that the inscription on the back of the facsimile has been placed there by Mr. Saltus and will call your attention to the fact that this is not a medal but a facsimile of the Institute's Insignia and medal of honor. Kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Marc Smith
Departmental Secretary.
